"Applicable Par Call Date" means (1) with respect to the 2.750% Notes due 2022, February 1, 2022 (one month prior to the maturity of the 2.750% Notes due 2022), (2) with respect to the 3.250% Notes due 2024, January 14, 2024 (one month prior to the maturity of the 3.250% Notes due 2024), (3) with respect to the 3.375% Notes due 2029, December 1, 2028 (three months prior to the maturity of the 3.375% Notes due 2029) and (4) with respect to the 4.000% Notes due 2048, March 14, 2048 (six months prior to the maturity of the 4.000% Notes due 2048).

"Reference treasury dealer quotations" means, with respect to each reference treasury dealer and any redemption date, the average, as determined by 3M Company, of the bid and asked prices for the comparable treasury issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to the Trustee by the reference treasury dealer at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the third business day preceding the redemption date.

“Treasury rate” means, with respect to any redemption date, the annual rate equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity of the comparable treasury issue, assuming a price of the comparable treasury issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the comparable treasury price for that redemption date.

In the case of a partial redemption of the 2.750% Notes due 2022, the 3.250% Notes due 2024, the 3.375% Notes due 2029 or the 4.000% Notes due 2048, selection of the notes for redemption will be made pro rata, if commercially practicable in accordance with the procedures

If any notes are to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to such notes will state the portion of such notes to be redeemed. New notes in principal amounts of at least $2,000 equal to the unredeemed portion of the notes will be issued in the name of the holder of the notes upon surrender for cancellation of the original notes. Unless 3M Company defaults in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on the notes or the portions of the notes called for redemption.

Use of Proceeds:

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the sale of the notes offered hereby for general corporate purposes.

Supplemental Information Concerning Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations:

This section describes the supplemental material federal income tax consequences of acquiring the 3.250% Notes due 2024 and the 4.000% Notes due 2048 offered hereby (the “reopened notes”). For a complete description of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of acquiring and owning the reopened notes, the 2.750% Notes due 2022 and the 3.375% Notes due 2029, please see the discussion under “Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations” in the accompanying prospectus supplement.

Qualified Reopening and Issue Price of the Reopened Notes

The reopened notes offered hereby will be treated as a part of the same issue of the previously issued 3.250% Notes Due 2024 and the previously issued 4.000% Notes Due 2048 (the “existing notes”) pursuant to a “qualified reopening” for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Therefore, the reopened notes offered hereby will be treated as having the same issue date and the same issue price as the existing notes. The existing notes were issued at no more than a de minimis discount from their stated principal amount. As a result, the existing notes were issued without original issue discount (“OID”) and, therefore, the reopened notes offered hereby also will be issued without OID.

Pre-Issuance Accrued Interest on the Reopened Notes

A portion of the purchase price of the reopened notes offered hereby will be attributable to the amount of stated interest accrued prior to the original issue date (“pre-issuance accrued interest”). Consequently, the reopened notes offered hereby should be treated as having been issued for an amount that excludes any pre-issuance accrued interest. If the reopened notes are so treated, a portion of the first interest payment on the reopened notes received by a U.S. Holder after the offering equal to the excluded pre-issuance accrued interest will be treated as a return of such pre-issuance accrued interest and will not be taxable as interest on the reopened notes. Your tax basis in a reopened note should exclude an amount equal to the pre-issuance accrued interest.

It is expected that delivery of the notes will be made against payment therefor on or about February 22, 2019, which is the seventh business day following the date of pricing of the notes (this settlement cycle being referred to as “T+7”). Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Exchange Act, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in two business days, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade notes on any date prior to two business days before delivery will be required, by virtue of the fact that the notes initially will settle in T+7, to specify an alternate settlement cycle at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement and should consult their own advisors.

Additional Selling Restrictions:

Notice to Prospective Investors in the European Economic Area

None of this pricing supplement, the accompanying prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and any related free writing prospectus is a prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive (as defined below). This pricing supplement, the accompanying prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and any related free writing prospectus have been prepared on the basis that any offer of notes in any Member State of the European Economic Area (the “EEA”) which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”) will only be made to a legal entity which is a qualified investor under the Prospectus Directive (“Qualified Investors”). Accordingly any person making or intending to make an offer in that Relevant Member State of notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated in this pricing supplement, the accompanying prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus and any related free writing prospectus may only do so with respect to Qualified Investors. Neither 3M Company nor the underwriters have authorized, nor do they authorize, the making of any offer of notes other than to Qualified Investors. The expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended or superseded), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS — The notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, (a) the expression “retail investor” means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive

2014/65/EU, as amended (“MiFID II”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97, as amended or superseded (the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive; and (b) the expression “offer” includes the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the notes. Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014, as amended (the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.
